

LaGrange Academy
Reading List for Rising First Graders
Summer 2015

Welcome to First Grade! We are looking forward to a terrific year! Here are some authors you might enjoy reading. The authors of these books write good read aloud books to share with Mom and Dad. It is important for elementary students of all ages to listen to their parents read aloud. After reading discuss the story with your child. Talk about the characters, setting, and your favorite part.

Want to earn a prize in August when you start back to school? Look at the next page for some fun summer reading activities. Return the completed sheet to me in August and receive a special prize for being a super summer reader! Have a great summer and HAPPY READING!

Summer Reading Fun!

Try these fun activities to keep reading this summer. Each time you complete an activity, color the book next to it. When you color all of the books, have an adult sign the bottom of this page.

Bring this paper back to me in the fall for a PRIZE!

Read a book. Draw a picture of your favorite character and the setting of the book.

Read to a stuffed animal.

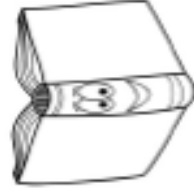

Read a book to an adult. Ask if they will read one back to you.

Read outside. Find a quiet spot in the shade and read.

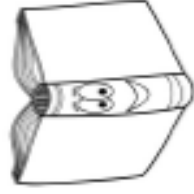

Read a book in the car when you are going somewhere.

Pretend you are a teacher. Read a book to your pretend class.

Read in bed. Ask your parent if you can stay up 20 minutes later to read!

Read 10 books. Write the titles on the back of this sheet.
